

TASTE OF THE TAFT

This annual series of luncheon lectures returns with a lineup of local luminaries giving presentations on regional history, culture, and society under the tent on the Harold C. Schott Foundation Terrace. Box lunch from Potluck Cuisine and Catering is included.

Friday, May 20, 12 p.m.

Oscar Treadwell: From High School Dropout to Doctor of Humane Letters—presented by legendary radio personality and jazz historian Oscar Treadwell.

Friday, June 10, 12 p.m.

Hog Wild about Cincinnati: An Interview with Mrs. Trollope—performance by Stuart Blersch and Janet Reed of the Ohio River Valley Chapter of the Victorian Society in America.

Friday, July 8, 12 p.m.

Pulp Nonfiction—a discussion with John Fleischman, author of Free and Public: 150 Years at the Public Library, former senior editor of Ohio Magazine, and science writer and broadcaster.

Friday, August 12, 12 p.m.

Alice Blue Gown: Alice Roosevelt Longworth—a costumed interpretation by Joyce B. Baer examining Alice's early years in the White House as "First Daughter" and ties to the Queen City.