

POETRY USED WITH JAZZ AND POETRY FALL QUARTER 2003

Do nothing till you hear from me by David Henderson for Langston Hughes

Dance of the infidels by Al Young in memory of Bud Powell

Nobody losses all the time by e. e. cummings

There came a wind like a bugle by Emily Dickenson

Ben Webster by Hayden Carruth

An Expiation of the combining of weathers.... By Hayden Carruth

"Sure," said Benny Goodman by Hayden Carruth

Song about Earl Hines by Hayden Carruth

My Cathedral by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

You've been a good old wagon.... Sung by Bessie Smith

The Rhodora by Ralph Waldo Emerson

Venus' Flytraps by Yusef Komunyakaa

Jazz by Karl Shapiro

Champagne by Gary P. Walton

Jazz Fantasia by Carl Sandburg

Poem by Frank O'Hara

Portraits by Ezra Pound

Commission by Ezra Pound

Walt Whitman by Edwin Arlington Robinson

The day lady died by Frank O'Hara

Nude descending a staircase by X. J. Kennedy

Magnets by Countee Cullen

Snatch of sliphorn jazz by Carl Sandburg

Valentine by Barbara B. Bonney

Unpublished

Lester Young by Ted Joans

Jazz Poem by Carl Wendell Hines, Jr.

The once-over by Paul Blackburn

An Acquired Taste by Oscar Treadwell

Unpublished